IMPOSING A GENERAL CURFEW

WHEREAS, in my capacity as Mayor, I proclaimed a civil emergency exists in the City of Seattle in the Mayoral Proclamation of Civil Emergency dated May 30, 2020 at 4.58 p.m.; and

WHEREAS, simultaneous with the Mayoral Proclamation of Civil Emergency, a civil emergency order imposing a general curfew was issued on May 30, 2020 and the conditions exist to extend the general curfew; and

WHEREAS, the tragic and unjustified killing of Mr. George Floyd by police officers in Minneapolis, MN has led to demonstrations across the nation to mourn, grieve, and protest the systemic issues of racism in our country; and

WHEREAS, the City continues to support demonstrators exercising their First Amendment right to peacefully and lawfully protest throughout the City; and

WHEREAS, at the same time thousands protested peacefully, the actions of others swiftly turned violent where certain individuals were destroying property and burning vehicles; many buildings were damaged and vandalized, windows broken, graffiti, looting and property was stolen, and fire damage; and

WHEREAS, such certain violent demonstrators used illegal weapons including Molotov cocktails, other incendiary devices to burn vehicles and buildings, in addition to throwing rocks and glass bottles and other objects to incite violence and rioting; and

WHEREAS, criminal acts of property destruction, vandalism, looting and other illegal acts led to the arrests of individuals throughout the evening in the downtown core, Capitol Hill, First Hill, Chinatown-International District, University District; and

WHEREAS, widespread violence also occurred in other areas of King County on May 31, 2020, including Bellevue, Tukwila, Renton and Auburn resulting in the Governor to deploy National Guard Service members to assist the cities, and resulted in emergency declarations and imposition of curfews in those jurisdictions; and

WHEREAS, at least 40 other cities in the country have imposed similar curfews and 23 states have called up National Guard Service members to assist local law enforcement protect life and property; and

WHEREAS, those intent on committing violence and property damage are mobile and able to travel quickly to different areas of the City; and

WHEREAS, the Governor's Stay Home - Stay Healthy Order issued on March 23, 2020 is still in full effect, which requires people to stay home and avoid public gatherings during the pandemic in order to combat the spread of the COVID-19 virus, unless it is for an essential purpose; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle Police Department expects demonstrations to continue in the City during the evening hours of June 2 through June 5, 2020. A city-wide curfew is needed because the exact locations of those expected demonstrations and violence are unknown at this time; and

WHEREAS, the city Charter provides that the Charter is enacted "as the Law of the City for the purpose of protecting and enhancing the health, safety, environment and general welfare of the people;" and

WHEREAS, the Chief of Police pursuant to the Charter of the City of Seattle, Article VI, Section 4, has the ultimate charge as the chief peace officer of the City, to maintain the peace and quiet of the City; and

WHEREAS, it is the determination of the Chief of Police that a city-wide general curfew is necessary to maintain the peace and quiet of the City during this civil emergency; and

WHEREAS, I am basing this Civil Emergency Order on the facts referred to in the preceding recitals; and

WHEREAS, the civil emergency necessitates the utilization of emergency powers granted to the Mayor pursuant to the Charter of the City of Seattle, Article V, Section 2, Seattle Municipal Code, Chapter 10.02 and RCW Chapter 38.52, including the power to enact a general curfew as set forth in Seattle Municipal Code, Chapter 10.02.020(A)(1); and

WHEREAS, it is necessary to use extraordinary measures to protect the public peace, safety and welfare; and

WHEREAS, the conditions of this Civil Emergency Order are designed to provide the least necessary restriction on the rights of the public; and

WHEREAS, I believe it is in the best interest of the public safety, rescue and recovery efforts and the protection of property that a general curfew be entered in the manner contemplated in this Civil Emergency Order; therefore,
